

Learn to Make Natural Wreaths!

Enjoy the beauty of balsam fir and pinecone wreaths all season.

Thursday, November 20th &
December 4th at 6:00 p.m.

Shirley Luck Senior Citizen Center, (109 East Main St.), Johnstown, NY 12095

Cornell Cooperative Extension Master Gardeners Mary Ann Charon, Joan Eckler and Bob Farrell will show you how to create your own wreaths during this hands-on workshop.

Instructors will demonstrate the techniques and participants will each make two wreaths—one pinecone and one balsam. All materials will be supplied.

Class is limited to 15 participants—Register on or before November 13th. Must have at least 5 to hold workshop.

Cost is $20 per person and is required to guarantee a spot.

To register:

Call Cornell Cooperative Extension, 518-673-5525 ext 113.

Participants show off their handmade wreaths in a previous class.
